

Giving control of this public matter into the hands of a private special interest group (the MPAA) only serves the special interest group. The home recording issue affects the lifestyle of many people, a lifestyle that has already been judged by the Supreme Court. I, nor my customers, are criminals, and we do not wish to be treated as such by the assumption of guilt.

Thank you,

-Bill Paul